Robert Morse, Bridge’s Executive Chairman, remarked “Bridge delivered another strong year of financial results despite a challenging macroeconomic environment. We achieved record closes for three of our specialized strategies with Debt Strategies IV at $2.9 billion, Multifamily V at $2.3 billion and Workforce & Affordable Housing II at $1.7 billion, highlighting the confidence investors place in our best-in-class investment teams. Our newer strategies continue to scale as demonstrated by the $1.3 billion of gross capital deployed by our logistics team, a strong portfolio of over 3,300 homes in our Single-Family Rental platform, and a growing Net Lease Income vehicle. Looking forward, we’re excited about the compelling opportunities for our Renewable Energy and PropTech strategies, as ESG and technological solutions become more critical for the real estate industry.”

Jonathan Slager, Bridge’s Chief Executive Officer, added “Bridge’s specialized investment approach, vertically integrated business model, and focus on value-add strategies continues to be a strength in a difficult market. The structure of our fund capital allows us to be patient and selective while also nimble to take advantage of opportunities generated from market dislocations. We demonstrated this within our Debt Strategies vertical, investing over $1.2 billion opportunistically from 2Q to 4Q 2022, and have $3.5 billion of dry powder across our funds to invest at what we think will be an attractive point in the cycle.”

Common Dividend

Bridge declared a quarterly dividend of $0.17 per share of its Class A common stock, payable on March 24, 2023 to its Class A common stockholders of record at the close of business on March 10, 2023.
