

Bridge Investment Group Launches Bridge Industrial Net Lease Strategy

Bridge Investment Group LLC (“Bridge”) today announced the launch of its industrial net lease strategy (“Bridge Industrial Net Lease”), which aims to focus on acquiring attractively priced mission critical industrial net lease real estate scaled for diversification and durable income in prime U.S. growth markets. Within this new strategy, Bridge will leverage its nationwide real estate platform and deep in-house operating platforms, which is expected to enable Bridge Industrial Net Lease to efficiently acquire, manage, re-lease, and maximize returns in stabilized industrial assets for the strategy.

On the strategy launch, Robert Morse, Executive Chairman of Bridge, said: “Bridge sees key market opportunity in the industrial real estate sector. We believe that the vertical will continue to outperform as e-commerce and supply chain growth fuel tailwinds, intensifying the need for high quality and well-located mission critical facilities in logistically connected corridors.”

To lead this new strategy, Bridge appointed the Bridge Industrial Net Lease team, which has a combined 70 years of experience in the real estate and finance industries collectively. Effective as of today, this team will be led by Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”), Mike Sodo; Co-Chief Investment Officer (“Co-CIO”), Matt Tucker; and Co-CIO, Brandon Flickinger. They are joined by Managing Director, James Freeman. The launch of this strategy and the appointments of these individuals mark an important move for Bridge into the industrial space.

On the appointment of the Bridge Industrial Net Lease team, Morse said: “We are thrilled to welcome Mike, Matt, Brandon and James to the Bridge team. Their collective experience is vital to our success as we move into the increasingly important industrial net lease vertical.”

About the Bridge Industrial Net Lease team

Mike Sodo, CEO of Bridge Industrial Net Lease Fund Manager LLC (the “Fund Manager”) is a co-founder of the vertical and member of the Investment Committee (the “Investment Committee”) of the general partner of the fund (the “General Partner”), with over 20 years of experience in the real estate, finance and accounting industries.
