

Bridge Investment Group Partners Announces the Completion of a $62 million Round of Funding

SALT LAKE CITY, April 4, 2012 – Bridge Investment Group Partners, LLC ("Bridge-IGP") announced today that they completed a $62 million round of funding to be used in their acquisition multi-family apartment communities located in the western United States.

Robert Morse, Chairman of Bridge-IGP, commented, "We are pleased to have successfully raised US$62 million which enables our real estate family of funds to continue on the successful strategy of opportunistically purchasing distressed multifamily properties and adding value via our in-house property management operations. We continue to see a lot of properties that provide immediate cash yields to our investors."

Donaldson Hartman, CEO of Bridge-IGP, added, "Our in-house property management team of over 500 personnel allows us to best position our properties. Our investors benefit from not having to bear 'double promotes' when it comes to property management. As such we are able to maximize the return to our investors."

As at December 31, 2011, Bridge-IGP made 31 investments of approximately US$270 million.
